

Marseille-Provence 2013 Positively Brilliant!

FLOOR SHOW

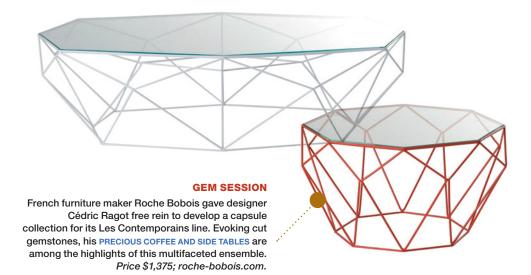

With his award-winning TRESSE RUG COLLECTION

for Chevalier Edition, Samuel Accoceberry was truly thinking outside the box. Handknotted in wool and silk, these stunning graphic pieces (tresse is the French word for "braid") come in a wide variety of shapes, sizes and colors. chevalieredition.com

DIVINE DESIGN

OA 1710'S D-VIN RÖBE WINE COOLER was inspired by the high-collared outfits of the Incroyables and Merveilleuses-the partyhearty dandies and divas of France's Directoire period. It's a sure way to make your table as cool as your wine. €250; oa1710.com.

SHARPER IMAGE

Inspired by Ridley Scott's dystopian classic, Philippe Starck's limited-edition "Blade Runner" design for LaCie lends the EXTERNAL HARD DRIVE a sci-fi edge. It has a USB 3.0 connection, 4TB of storage and is certified replicant-free. $299; lacie.com.

MAKING TIME

Dar en Art's Zel clock looks both forward and backward. Its geometric motifs are reminiscent of Morocco's traditional ceramic zellige tiles, but its lacquered lasercut steel housing is very 21st century. Available in multiple hues as well as black, white and metallic. From €690: darenart.com.

DRESS SENSE

Vertbaudet's adorable SUMMER DRESSES for the elementaryschool set feature pretty patterns from Atelier LZC. Made of cotton poplin, they come in four different designs. €22.95; vertbaudet.fr/shop/ collection_LZC.htm.

Committed to sustainable development, Ekobo weds good design with eco-friendly materials and fair-trade practices. Its BRIO SPOTLIGHT, made of lacquered bamboo and resting on a cork base, is a shining example of the company's aesthetic. Available in three sizes, from €90 to €140; ekobohome.com.

WALKING SOFTLY

Colorful and lightweight, these recyclable felt slippers by Soft'in strive to have the smallest possible environmental footprint. The soles and uppers are bound together using an ultrasound system to avoid the use of glue and PVC. €45; soft-in.fr.

Good Seeds

CAUDALIE, the Bordeaux-based brand that was the first to develop organic grapeseed-based skincare products, now boasts two boutiques in the Big Apple: a flagship in the West Village (315 Bleecker Street) and a smaller location on the Upper East Side (1031 Lexington Avenue). The décor at both locations harks back to the company's origins, with a wine-barrel-shaped oak "beauty bar" for testing products, potted grapevines and wall-size images of the Château Smith Haut Lafitte vineyard where it all began. us.caudalie.com
